

#2- For those Who Serve

thanks to Phil Hamel at the Bureau of Prisons for this article-

U.S. soldiers celebrate Native American heritage in Iraq Submitted by: 1st Force Service Support Group Story
Identification #: 2004924672 Story by Sgt. Enrique S. Diaz

CAMP TAQADDUM, Iraq (Sept. 24, 2004) -- The Army's 120th Engineer Combat Battalion held a Native American pow wow here, Sept. 17-18, 2004.

The Okmulgee, Okla.,-based unit held the pow wow to promote cultural understanding of their heritage with other servicemembers here, while bringing a piece of home to many of the Native Americans serving in Iraq.

ARTICLE EDITED HERE. CLICK ON THIS LINK TO GO TO THE MARINES WEBPAGE TO READ THE FULL ARTICLE.

<http://192.156.19.109/marinelink/mcn2000.nsf/main5/CC91AA1BF1E4EFDA85256F190037937B?opendocument>