MEMORANDUM FOR ALL GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES

SUBJECT: American Indian Heritage Special Emphasis Program Sponsored by the Denver Federal Executive Board American Indian Program Council

In observance of American Indian Heritage Month, all public employees are invited to attend the Denver Federal Executive Board American Indian Program Council's (AIPC) Cultural Sensitivity Training on Thursday, March 06, 2008, from 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., at the Colorado History Museum, 1300 Broadway, Denver, CO.

This year's presentations will include keynote speaker, Dr. Grace Sage Musser, an enrolled member of the Sovereign Oneida Nation of Indians of Wisconsin, and Conciliation Specialist with the Department of Justice, Mr. John Emhoolah, co-founder of the Denver March Pow Wow, Mr. Richard Wilson, Retired Chief of the Division of Energy and Minerals Bureau of Indian Affairs, and Ms. Jonny Bearcub Stiffarm, Business Development Manager for NativeEnergy. Also included is the Museum Exhibit, Tribal Paths: Colorado's American Indians, 1500 A.D to Today.

The total cost for the seminar, including lunch, is $45.00. All registration forms must be accompanied by check, credit card information, or money order payable to DFEB/AIPC and mailed to: Bernadetta Lopez, GAO, 1244 Speer Blvd., Suite 800, Denver, CO, 80204. The deadline for registration is February 28, 2008. Please sign up early, the maximum capacity for this event is 200 individuals.

Please share this information with your employees. This is an opportunity for all agencies to participate in an interagency effort to observe American Indian Heritage Month and receive cultural sensitivity training. Attached are the flyer and registration forms for dissemination to your employees and for posting at your agency. The Colorado History Museum is wheelchair accessible and interpreter services will be provided upon request-paid by the agency.

If you have any questions, please contact Najah Lightfoot Bagley, AIPC Chairperson at Najah.LightfootBagley@NFC.USDA.GOV or Bernadetta Lopez, Registration Chair at (303) 572-7366. Training information will also be posted on the AIPC website at www.aipc.osmre.gov.

We look forward to your participation in what promises to be an educational and rewarding experience for all.

Very Respectfully,

Lawrence D. Grandison, Jr.
Executive Director
